

St. Louis County Circuit Court Web Site Disclaimer

The Circuit Court of St. Louis County, 21st Judicial Circuit provides this web site as a source of public information for the Circuit Court of St. Louis County. All efforts are made to ensure that information and links are accurate and current. Information on the Court's website is provided for convenience and does not replace official notices or publications. Our web pages are routinely updated. However, there may be a delay in posting changes; and the Circuit Court assumes no liability for any legal consequences arising out of the listing of inaccurate or outdated information on these pages. Information contained on this web site should in no way be construed as legal advice. Users should contact an attorney if they require legal assistance or advice.

By Missouri Revised Statutes, the Circuit Court of St. Louis County cannot answer requests or questions seeking legal advice, legal information or legal assistance. Please note that the Circuit Court of St. Louis County is also unable to discuss the specifics of any case or intervene in any pending legal matter. Those who require legal information or legal advice are advised to consult an attorney.

For information regarding the filing of an Order of Protection under the Adult Abuse and Child Protection laws, call (314)615-8086. For information regarding the filing of a Small Claims petition, call (314)615-8091.

Please note that e-mails to the Court do not constitute "official" correspondence with the Court and are not a valid means of filing documents with the Court.

The Court will endeavor to respond in a timely fashion to all inquiries regarding the Court's web site, however, mail to the address below is not guaranteed to be accessed or processed every day.