ACTIVITY GUIDE
MARCH - AUGUST 2012

WHERE FUN COMES NATURALLY

PRODUCED BY THE ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH
ADVERTISING DEPARTMENT

AS THE DAYS BECOME LONGER AND THE WEATHER BEGINS TO WARM, THOUGHTS MOVE FROM OUR INDOOR ROUTINE TO NEW OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES.

THE FIRST CHOICE IS ALWAYS YOUR ST. LOUIS COUNTY PARKS!

Fishing seminars, found in the Gone Fishin' Guide, continue through March and usher in the season of great fishing offered throughout St. Louis County Parks. Also featured are Outdoor Adventures that include unique experiences such as hiking or cycling on over 130 miles of trails; camping in the Missouri woodlands; boating in our rivers and streams; and enjoying a multitude of nature programs designed to get you up and out into the Great Outdoors.

Day Camps offered at our Recreation Complexes fill quickly and include sports, science, art and many other diverse and fun learning experiences for your child. Cool off in the pools of the Recreation Centers, which are available from May into August, or visit one of our museums or historic sites such as the Bissell House. Every day is a special day at the St. Louis Carousel, which is open all year round.

Special events include the ever-popular World War II Weekend in Jefferson Barracks and the new Critter Crawl in Clydesdale Park; the annual Art Fair at Laumeier or the new Singles Beach Party at Creve Coeur; the tradition of Concerts in Faust Park or the new Yardgames & BBQ at Affton Community Center.

As summer turns to fall your family will love a visit to Lone Elk Park, Cliff Cave or Fort Belle Fontaine, where you can embrace the change of seasons and nature rules supreme. Here the richness and beauty of St. Louis County reminds us of the importance we place on preserving these treasures. You may help by becoming a Trail Watch Volunteer. For more information, flip through the pages of your 2012 Spring Summer Activity Guide.

ENJOY YOUR ST. LOUIS COUNTY PARKS.

WHAT'S INSIDE

RECREATION COMPLEXES & SWIMMING 3

Take advantage of the community centers in your area. Available features include fitness centers, swimming pools, gymnasiums, ice rinks, golf courses, and meeting and event spaces. Swim lessons and special swim sessions are also available.

EXERCISE & FITNESS 4

St. Louis County Parks offer many varied fitness and exercise opportunities for residents from toddlers to seniors. Join the fun of dancing, pilates, yoga, team sports and more.

CAMPS & MORE 6

Whether your children enjoy sports, the great outdoors, art, theater or science, there is a camp for them. St. Louis County Parks hosts a wide variety of summer camps, day camps and specialty camps from which to choose.

MUSEUMS, HISTORIC SITES & PROGRAMS 8

A number of St. Louis County Parks sites are rich in history, housing original structures and artifacts, including residences built in the 1800s and the United States' first military post west of the Mississippi. Tours, educational programs and exhibits at these sites offer a deeper understanding of the past.

GONE FISHIN' 13

Beginner or expert, there is always a new fishing technique to learn or master! Why not start now? You may also wish to take advantage of special fishing trips and fairs.

OUTDOOR ADVENTURES... 14

Acquire skills in caving, orienteering, birding, hiking and more this season. Many courses offer hands-on learning opportunities, while others are taught in a classroom. Some special outdoor activities are combined with a breakfast!

PARK WATCH

Park Watch is a program to bring park visitors, park neighbors and St. Louis County Parks and Recreation staff together to ensure safety and the highest quality of facilities and services. If you see suspicious activities, vandalism or problems within a St. Louis County Park, call the County Park Watch Hotline at 314-615-ISEE (4733) or 800-735-2966 TTY (Relay Missouri). You may remain anonymous. To contact a St. Louis County Park Ranger, call 314-615-8911. To report a crime in progress or a medical emergency, call 911. You are encouraged to observe and report any illegal or suspicious activity, vandalism, hazardous conditions, park maintenance needs, park ordinance violations or resource misuse. When observing such events, please note time, place, description of persons and vehicles, including direction of travel, as well as any other identifying information. Please report only! Please do not take any action to intervene or attempt to correct a problem. This is the responsibility of St. Louis County Parks Rangers and the St. Louis County Police. Thank you.

ACCESSIBILITY

For accommodations you may need to make a program accessible, or to receive this activity guide in an alternative format, call 314-615-4386 or 800-735-2966 TTY (Relay Missouri). 48 hour (2 business days) notice is needed for sign language interpreters. Requests for Braille will require more time.

FAUST EDUCATION PROGRAMS

at Thornhill and Faust Historic Village (Grades 3-8)

Students learn about history and family life in the 1800s through hands-on activities in an authentic environment. Several programs are available and target grades 3 through 6. Fall 2012 registration begins on March 1 and must be arranged through the Faust Park office. Call 314-615-8328.

THORNHILL OPEN HOUSE (All Ages)

Mother's Day weekend at Faust Park will feature free tours of the estate of Missouri's second governor, Frederick Bates. The estate includes the house, a detached kitchen, an icehouse, smokehouse, blacksmith shop, three barns and family cemetery. Bates' home, built circa 1819, is the oldest existing governor's home in the state and is listed on the National Historic Register. Guides in period dress provide information and answer questions. Call 314-615-8328.

Saturday-Sunday May 12-13 1-5 p.m.

The St. Louis Carousel is an original 1920s carousel from the Dentzel Co. of Philadelphia. The carousel was installed at the St. Louis Highlands Amusement Park in 1929. After the fire in 1963 that destroyed the park, it was moved to Sylvan Springs Park and operated there until 1979. The St. Louis County Historic Buildings Commission and Faust Park Foundation raised funds to restore the Carousel and move it to Faust Park.

As the United States' first military post west of the Mississippi River, Fort Belle Fontaine was the final stop of Lewis and Clark's "Corps of Discovery" expedition and served as the starting point for other explorers. The park includes a three-mile long nature trail that guides hikers along Coldwater Creek, its confluence with the Missouri River and through a 50-acre upland prairie. To visit the park, follow Bellefontaine Road north and enter through the Missouri Hills Home security station. Call 314-544-6224.

Jefferson Barracks was a United States Army post from 1826 to 1946. The museum buildings were part of the ordnance section built in the 1850s. The Powder Magazine Museum displays the history of the Barracks. Temporary exhibits, guided tours, educational programs and special events are offered. The Friends of Jefferson Barracks operate the gift shop located in the Visitors Center.

THE CIVIL WAR IN THE WEST EXHIBIT

In commemoration of the 150th anniversary of the American Civil War, this exhibit will feature artifacts, equipment and text panels explaining the war in the West. Featured battles will be Shiloh, Vicksburg, Corinth, Nashville and many more. Uniforms, equipment and other artifacts will provide an idea of what the life of the common soldier was like, in camp, on the field and during battle.
Feb. 1-Nov. 4, 2012

LIVING HISTORY FIELD TRIPS (Ages 9+)

Come visit with Joseph Plumb Martin - a Revolutionary War soldier, Billy Yank, Johnny Reb, a Civil War spy or doctor, a WWI Doughboy and WWII G.I. Joe. These programs offer school children, in grades 4-12, the opportunity to visit and understand the past. Although created to address Missouri's Core Curriculum standards for students, our programs are popular with many adult groups and organizations. Advance registration is required. Email mkollbaum@stlouisco.com or call 314-544-6224.

Laumeier Sculpture Park is a 105-acre open-air museum that integrates art, nature and human experience in a unique setting where you can hike, learn and view a stunning collection of art. The Indoor Galleries and Museum Shop will reopen on June 2.

CAMP OUT: FINDING HOME IN AN UNSTABLE WORLD (All Ages)

The title, "Camp Out," suggests the two extremes of living in the landscape. For some, camping is a deliberate "back-to-nature" experience precluded in our urbanized world. For other past and present global citizens, however, displacement from home and finding basic resources for living is a great struggle. Artists for this project will work off of ancient and contemporary forms of human shelter, using new materials and processes to create unique sculptural forms. Visit www.laumeier.org or call 314-615-5278.

"The Museum of Transportation houses one of the largest and best collections of transportation vehicles in the world," according to the Smithsonian Institution. The museum has the most complete collection of American rail power anywhere, and its collection of automobiles, busses, streetcars, aircraft, horse-drawn vehicles and riverboat material reflects the ever-changing nature of transportation.

URBAN TREE PROGRAM

Honor a loved one, friend, organization or event through the Urban Tree Program. The donation level you choose will benefit the St. Louis County Park system by helping with reforestation of our urban forests. Donating a tree, replacing aging wood benches with recycled plastic benches, or selecting a bevel-edged commemorative brick for engraving are options from which you may choose. Commemorative bricks are placed at your choice of the Spanish Lake flagpole, the Jefferson Barracks Visitors Center flagpole, or the Queeney Barn Garden and Lilac Walkway. Obtain more information at www.stlouisco.com/parks/utp or 314-822-8151.

YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

ATTENTION ALL CORPORATE AND SCHOOL GROUPS:

Your school or corporate group of volunteers can help save the environment by ridding our parks of invasive honeysuckle. Honeysuckle removal projects and service learning field trips can be scheduled Tuesday through Friday at parks throughout the County. During April, which is National Volunteer Month, participants may have the opportunity to work with AmeriCorps team members, part of the National Service Corps. Call 314-615-8865.

JUNIOR MASTER GARDENER at Queeney Park (Ages 4-14)

This series of classes is modeled after the highly successful Master Gardener program. It offers horticultural science and environmental science education, leadership skills and life skills development through fun and creative activities. Children will participate in planning, planting, caring for and harvesting a garden, as well as compost formation and recycling back to the soil. The children will have a "hands on" experience and also have a community service project donating to the Feed My People food pantry. Advance registration is required. Call 314-615-8482.
