

Fact Sheet

Democracy is good.
Without you, it's not whole.
So let's get to work for democracy.

Sign up to be a poll worker today!

Several times a year, you have the right and privilege to cast your vote in an election. The process of voting is simple, but did you know it takes nearly 5,000 poll workers to support each election in St. Louis County?

With a small investment of time — only a few days each year — you can make an important contribution to the vitality of the democratic process in our community.

St. Louis County is embarking on an aggressive poll worker recruitment program — and we need your help!

What Can You Do?

St. Louis County needs individuals to serve as poll workers on Election Day. Poll workers are paid for their service! To be a poll worker, you must:

- Be a registered voter
- Have declared a political party preference
- Attend a poll worker training session

With Your Support, Everyone Benefits

- Service as a poll worker helps the election process run smoothly and ensures the integrity of the outcome.
- Poll workers are paid for their important service.
- St. Louis County has a public recognition program to honor poll workers in significant ways.
- Companies can publicly demonstrate their commitment to being good corporate citizens.
- Poll worker service provides a unique fundraising opportunity when compensation is pooled toward a common cause.

Attention Corporate Citizens, Organizations and Service Groups!

We've got a participation program just for you. If you are interested in enhancing your organization's reputation and profile in the community, we have a program in place to support you as you engage employees and members in making a significant contribution to the community by serving as poll workers. In addition to a recognition program for organizational "partners," we have tools to aid your effort. Contact the St. Louis County Board of Elections today to receive more information via our Organizational Partner kit!

Do you know how to turn $100 into $10,000? We do!

Poll workers are paid for their service, with compensation beginning at $130. You can create a great fundraiser by engaging your members to serve as poll workers, and encouraging them to pool the earnings toward a worthy cause, or to support your own service organization.

Your support can begin now!

The process works best with the support of all Missouri citizens! There is a way for all eligible citizens to serve as poll workers.
