Hayrides consist of a 45-minute tractor drawn hayride along trails in Greensfelder Park. Following the ride, a one-hour cook fire is provided. Reservations must be made in advance.

GREENSFELDER PARK DIRECTIONS

To reach Greensfelder Park, take Interstate 44 West to Pacific-Allenton Exit- (Six Flags) Turn North on Allenton Road and proceed for 2 miles to the park entrance. Follow signs to the stable area.
NOTE: Please meet in parking lot in front of stables.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

In case of inclement weather (lightening, heavy rain, ice) please call 636-458-1353 or 314 -621-3334 to inquire about cancellations.

HAYRIDE RULES

Hay wagons hold a maximum of 20 people.
(This is an actual count, regardless of age or size) and rides are available by reservation only.

Please arrive 15 minutes early so your ride can begin promptly at the time stated on your reservation.

All wagons must have at least one adult on board.

A cook fire area will be assigned after the hayride is over.

Food, drink or smoking will not be allowed on the hay wagon.

Firewood will be supplied to each assigned fire pit area for a one-hour burn time for each reservation. You will be responsible for keeping the fire under control.

Extra firewood and a fire attendant for extended stays may be arranged when business permits at a cost of $45.00 per hour for availability please call 636-458-1353.

Customers reserving Mustang Shelter ($75.00) or Glassberg Shelter ($75.00) may make special arrangements for hayride pick up at shelter for an additional fee ($15.00) by calling 636-458-1353 in advance.

During periods of high risk of forest fire, a total ban on open fires will be enforced. When this occurs, every effort will be made to contact reserving groups, offering them the option of continuing their hayride without a cook fire, rescheduling (if available) or canceling and receiving a full refund. Management reserves the right to cancel a hayride if any group or member of a group is intoxicated, unruly, or violates park rules or regulations. In such instances, all fees will be forfeited.
