CULTURAL DIVERSITY

The ability to interact effectively and professionally with people of various cultures is a key element for success as a police officer in a contemporary society. This course will lead toward an enhanced level of understanding and communication, so the differences among people do not become an issue in police-citizen contacts.

Topics covered will include:

- Awareness and Understanding
- Tactical Communicating
- The Power of Perception
- The Link Between Cultural Education and Officer Safety

The instructor for this program will be Police Officer Andrea Sanderson with the C.M.P.A. who is a certified Cultural Diversity Instructor.

This program contains the eight hours P.O.S.T. Racial Profiling requirement
