INTRODUCTION TO JAVASCRIPT

The C.M.P.A. is offering an introductory course in the use of JavaScript language for enhancing simple web designs.

This class requires that you have completed the Introduction and Intermediate level classes for HTML

Learners who have had limited experience in the use of a computer, and those who have found computer use difficult, should not take this class. This is a high-level technically oriented class that requires some prior knowledge and computer experience.

Classes are POST certified for seven hours of technical skills training. Through explanations, demonstrations and live practice sessions, it teaches the basics skills for JavaScript to enhance simple web page through use of HTML (Hypertext Markup Language)

Topics include:

- JavaScript- What is it and how can I use it.
- The functions of JavaScript.
- How to create JavaScript code by use of a text editor.
- A practical introduction into scripts.
- Create and maintain scripts to enhance your website.

The course provides the student with basic introductory instructions for building and maintaining a simple web page design and will be geared for the slower student.
